

Institutional Memberships / Subscriptions:

Institutions, Corporations, Organizations (libraries, colleges, for-profits corporations, or other non-profit organizations, etc.) may purchase subscriptions or memberships at special institutional rates.

Our two publications, The Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography (PMHB) and Pennsylvania Legacies, are available on a subscription bases to other libraries and institutions directly through The Historical Society of Pennsylvania (HSP) or through various third party subscription agents.

Institutional and corporate memberships are available with various admission privileges for employees or members of an organization. A quantified number of research passes are provided on an annual basis for further distribution to employees or members. These memberships also include one subscription each for PMHB and Legacies to be mailed to the address of record.

Custom arrangements may be negotiated for organizations or groups seeking more subscription copies or broader visitation arrangements. In these cases, HSP will negotiate any such arrangements with the member organization.

Individuals associated with a particular institution may always purchase an individual membership at any level using their institutional affiliation as part of their address. HSP will recognize these memberships as individual memberships and not institutional memberships. In these cases, free research visitation privileges will be limited to that one individual member (no exceptions).

Institutional rates for subscriptions and memberships:
